Where Are Your Visitors Really Clicking?

You've built your sites and you filled them with great content, but you're not making anything until it hurts, and you have one BIG problem. You are not making anything until it hurts, and you have one BIG problem. You are not making anything until it hurts, and you have one BIG problem.

What's OR NOT on your website?

CLICK HEAT DYNAMO

WordPress Click Heat Map Plugin

ClickHeat Dynamo does a very simple thing. It tracks exactly where people are clicking on your site with pixel precision, and then shows you a 'HeatMap' diagram of the hottest areas of your site.

It's amazing when you have this information. You will probably find like me that visitors never seem to click where you are expecting them to. You can see where they are clicking because the heatmap diagram clusters the clicks and changes the colours of the click location depending on how many clicks (or how hot) that spot is.
